ALL CREDIT TO VIACOM / MTV

This is the only one on YouTube. The best VMA performance ever.

I used several different techniques to turn it into HD, but the video always has the banding/posterization issue which is virtually impossible to remove. Although I have suppressed much of it

Michael Jackson performs these songs:

- 1 - The Way You Make Me Feel
- 2 - Scream
- 3 - Black Or White
- 4 - Billie Jean
- 5 - Dangerous
- 6 - You Are Not Alone

With Janet Jackson and Lisa Marie Presley Jackson in the audience.

+Mezzy This story breaks my heart, because Michael was having sleeping problems instead of running some test on him for a real diagnose... they was giving him all these medications to make him sleep... yes pain killers are very addicting but certain people take them to calm them down like I do.... his life was chaotic... full of lies and nosy people and the media and greed and fakers and backstabbers.... he was loved and appreciated in other countries, but in America they spread lies after lies about him.....

Reply · 1

bubb062 2 days ago

When you do something right nobody wants to remember, but when you do something wrong nobody will forget! That's just how society has become and it's so sad.

Reply ·

globalcitizenn 1 day ago

To those calling him a drug addict, I'm neither blind, nor ignorant. I am, however, a doctor and know more about prescription drug dependency than anyone else on this thread. Doctors abused these drugs on him first, and it's not right to blame the patient for the doctor's mistakes. He also died because of a doctor's incompetence and unethical professional choices of AEG, not because of any fault of his. He was briefly dependent on Demerol (it was given for legitimate medical reasons) in the 90s and overcame it. That's it. He was clean at the time of his death. Those citing court reports, I suggest you actually read them. It's all there in Debbie Rowe's testimony.

+eljono1 This has been common for live performances since live performances were on tv, its just so that if something goes wrong, like the voice of whoever is singing breaks, they can still keep on singing, just the same with guitar strings. You don't want to one to break like when you are performing at the superbowl.

+Richard Croft Awesome performance, probably very tiring for everybody.....

Slash is also an amazing guitar player ; u can feel by the way he plays, that he belonged to a hard - rock band , especially during his solos ( way of playing , riffs , rythm , special ' hard - rock ' tonalities, i cant explain it very clearly as u saw ...Another specificity is that he can plays his solos during hours without being in lack of inspiration...Typical hard rock band guitar player.....

Right after the standing ovation, even Janet is stunned by the performance of her brother ; she claps in her hands so ' violently ' , like Michael did and she shakes her head with bright eyes full of admiration.....

Reply ·

Melanie Grey 1 month ago

+Rudra Pandya heard that it was lipsynced until the end at least for this song

Reply ·

Rudra Pandya 1 month ago

I know it's lip sync. But there is a reason behind that: his incredible dancing. You can't dance like that and sing on stage.

Reply ·

Melanie Grey 1 month ago

+Rudra Pandya agreed. Lady Gaga can really dance and sing in live performances. Of course her voice isn't at its best but she too can really sing and dance

Reply ·

Rudra Pandya 1 month ago

Yep I agree! But her dance isn't revolutionary like Michael's. Things like Moonwalk he invented are not just normal dance moves. Both Lady Gaga and Michael Jackson are great artists and I respect them both :)

Reply ·

Salice McCool 3 weeks ago

+Rudra Pandya

Michel didn't "invent" the moonwalk, and never claimed to. It's usually first credited to Cab Calloway, in 1933; Bill Bailey, Marcel Marceau, and Judy Garland all performed versions of it. Still, Fred Astaire was in the audience of Motown's 25th when Michael did it during Billie Jean, and he was blown away.

Reply ·

Butcher Wing 1 month ago

+MegaBojan1993 Exactly. The same issue happens with Moonwalker and This is it when shown on UK television (non HD) and on UK Pal DVDs. Sped up and too high pitch due to pal running at a faster field rate.

Reply · 1

dash2justice 1 month ago (edited)

+Butcher Wing I just did a side by side comparison of this and a non-remastered version I also found on youtube. You're right it is sped up but not by double speed to get to the 60fps of the remastered version, which I'm sure is the biggest reason why people say that things look sped up. Really it's just the smoothness of 60 fps. (also the sound doesn't sound higher pitched)

Reply ·

Butcher Wing 1 month ago

+dash2justice OK I'm now assuming that he sped it up on purpose to try and get it last YouTube's copyrighted materials detector.

Reply ·

dash2justice 1 month ago

+Butcher Wing From what I've seen speeding something up doesn't get it past content ID. I think it was the remastering process that sped it up. It was probably recorded at 24fps and then sped up to 30 and interpolated to 60fps.

Reply ·

Butcher Wing 1 month ago

+dash2justice Possibly. Although not recorded at 24fps. This isn't film. It's the same footage from the MTV cameras, which was betacam analogue video. And I assure you speeding stuff up does avoid the content ID. I know this coz so many people are doing it to stuff now and its annoying! TV shows I watch have been totally messed with,. Sped up, pitched up, both, flipped , all sorts. Lol

I'm thinking 2Pac was also a great entertainer, he brought good messages in his music such as Changes, Starin Through My Rearview etc. just like Michael's songs. I love them both equally, and I love rap. But Michael is something else, he is the greatest in the music industry, his music attracted everyone and well, rap its not everyones favourite.

Reply · 4

+Mahrugh Shafiq I agree with you, Tupac was such a huge impact to the world just like Michael. They are both similarly great artists that impacted the world greatly with their music and personality. Both down to earth people, it's no wonder that God brought them home, I will miss them a lot. But they still live thru their music today.

+TheFredBone You are saying that because you are not someone who knows a lot about music. Count the number of songs all people alive know from each artist. MJ would win. Do you know "Ben" or "I'll be there"? Obviously you don't. But it's just two songs of MJ that come to mind for me. MJ has a repertoire that far exceeds that of Elton John. Elton John is a great artist too, but MJ ... he's bigger than life.

+OTRFalcon Micheal is my favorite artist of all time dead or alive.. but you know as well as I do its better to watch his video than just hear on the radio.. Elton John or Paul McCartney or stevie wonder have over all better songs

OTRFalcon 2 weeks ago

+TheFredBone It's better to watch his video because that makes the song complete, but his songs are great too. "We are the world" is a perfect song, I was spontaneously thinking of today because of what is happening to the refugees from Syria and Iraq. One thing you could say is that his voice wasn't always perfect especially at the end, but his songs are just amazing. Blame it on the boogie is still played on the radio here, but I can't remember the last time I heard Candle in the wind.

Reply ·

TheFredBone 2 weeks ago

+OTRFalcon I feel you I get it but I just think he is what he is based on his entertainmenyt value and the other 3 on music alone

Reply ·

OTRFalcon 2 weeks ago (edited)

+TheFredBone Elton John is known for his glasses :D And as one of the best representatives for the LGBT community. But you're right, I kind of underestimated his repertoire. There are many songs of him I know, but they don't seem to play them often on the radio here (I live in Belgium). Nikita is one of the songs I like best from Elton John. Thanks anyway, you made me listen to Elton John on YouTube now :D

I think michael jackson was asexual. that's why he can truly love but sexually couldn't satisfy anyone. I mean even if he was straight or gay , he could of have anyone really. Just look at Ricky Martin. he dated alot of beautiful women but then he came out and now he is really happy with whoever wants to be. And all of those child molestation where all about taking advantage of his money. Is so sad that someone could do that to someone that gave the whole world happiness. Michael should have come out as an asexual person to the world since he was a sex icon and maybe the pressure of him being with a girl would've been gone.

+candygirl24100 really? you would leave your husband (hypothetically) let your kids go through the troubles of divorce for Michael Jackson? I would only do it if I truly loved him more than my husband, fame, money put aside. I mean, it seems a lot of people antagonize her. But I don't, probably because I feel like MJ did really love her, and I can't hate someone he had a genuine reason to care about. Or someone I don't know.

I watched the 2015 VMA's last night and I was really sad ...sad because there will never be another performer like Michael Jackson who has the ability, the talent, and the dedication to their craft to make a performance like this. It seems these days booty shaking and performing half naked is giving a performance. Michael knew how to move an audience by his music, his dance and his take no prisoner showmanship. He always left you with shaking your head in amazement and your jaw on the floor by the gift he just gave not by what a ass you just made of yourself. This is the bottom line why there will never be anyone to replace Michael Jackson and his legacy will live for generations to come. I only hope someday a generation will look back and say hey we need to go back and study the greatest entertainer of all time and be like he was.

If you guys don't know...Slash overplayed his part. He was not supposed to solo that long. MJ got pissed. The backstage tech came out to say "GTFOH" and Slash ignored him. MJ tapped him on the shoulder and he ignored MJ. So he left stage and took the stage back with the intro to Billie Jean. Even at the beginning Slash was going to keep playing buy MJ stole the spotlight back (literally) with his silhouette and famous BJ beat. Slash was being an asshole! lol. MJ even was man enough to give Slash a shout out at the end. haha.

HE was a genuinely kind soul, and took a beating all his life, he could never find peace. Abused as a kid, abused by the industry that he generated billions for, abused by the press, and abused by the american public, and worst of all abused and betrayed by the money grubbing kids that he helped, convinced by their parents to bring false charges against michael to get a fat check. If your kid got molested would you want fuckin cash? Or for him to go to jail? I would want justice, not fuckin money.

There are always gonna be haters. Most genuine people know the allegations against Michael were false, but it's just that people want to hate him. They don't want to see the good, they only want to focus on the bad. You can't change that. No matter how innocent he was, they will always comment sick pedophile, or freak, because people want to hate more than they want to love.

the 2015 VMA's were so bad it hurts my eyes. bring us back to 95' with MJ killing it. People took MJ's talent for granted. I guess people found it hard to believe he was even human when he was that incredible. But he was and remains a kind, generous, empathetic soul who was too good for this cynical world. #HappyBirthdayMJ you are the greatest entertainer of all time. nobody will ever come close. How can u not love this guy? He told us he'd Be There. He'd ROC Wit Cha, told us when to Beat It and he was so good at it. Reminded us We Are The World and to take a deep look at The Man In The Mirror. He was a Thriller constantly. They Don't Really Care About Us he shouted. I wish the world would just Leave Me Alone as I cry my heart out. When I listen to your songs, you sang to us and say You Are Not Alone..Michael you are Gone To Soon and you will go down in History for making people Come Together, Black or White. You made us all Jam. It's Human Nature to die but I will always Remember The Time You Rock My World..Love You 4 Life MJ

OK will you fools who are complaining about this being lip synched yes it was good lord people shut up and realize that there was more to Michael Jackson than some singer. The man has been singing since he was 5 years old everyone knows he can sing. His songs are recorded to PERFECTION he didn't need to sing LIVE through a whole performance. Michael was also the best dancer of all time his dances were pure PERFECTION. This being said no one not even Michael could dance as hard as he did and be able to sing 4 songs without breathing heavily. Watch the dance enjoy the music enjoy the man. Focus on his feet, the moves, how he thought of every sound,everything he did was for a reason. He is Michael Jackson for a reason folks the greatest entertainer of all time. Many many singers will come and go but no one will have "that thing" that Michael had and his legacy will live for generations to come.

Why did slash do that to Michael? That was rude Slash! Slash kept on playing when Michael came to the stopping point of his song, and Slash was suppose to stop, but he kept on with his guitar. Yes Slash is good on the guitar, but there are others that are good as well. But that was rude of Slash. Now to Michael Jackson, he was not acting like a girl, he was acting SEXY. I know that his real voice is deep. He chooses to talk soft and sexy for the female(s), which very dang smart I say. Look what his looks, talent, sexiness has don't to this world of music/movies. Hes was the greatest king of pop/ar &b artist. I miss em. If your reading this Michael Jackson, when you do show yourself again, have that deep voice, but still be you my love. xoxo

I have debated in my head who is the greatest performer of all time. I want to think its Elvis, he did pave the way. But this guy is on another level. Was he human? I'm watching video after video and he's just impressive. I don't know what else to say. What he did and was capable of producing is insanely creative. Nothing I've seen so far can compare to it.

Anti-racists say there's a RACE problem that will be solved when non-Whites flood into ALL & ONLY White countries and "assimilates." What if it was said there is a RACE problem that will be solved if hundreds of millions of non-Blacks were assimilated into EVERY Black country? Would people realize it's not a RACE problem, but actually a BLACK problem? Would people realise it was GENOCIDE? They say they're anti-racist. What they are is anti-White. Anti-racist is a codeword for anti-White

M.j michael jackson, the greatest ever, a musical, dancing genius, we will never see another like him, not in our generation or our the next, he's got me a ton of ladies and 9 evictions, you can't win them all. Spare a thought for his children, he was gone way to soon, he would of smashed that 'this is it' concerts and others globally. R.i.p MICHAEL JACKSON X

Nobody can pull off a performance like he does. And especially, nobody can bring out the magic in everyone like he does. He's the one and only. Michael, you are so, so special to me. I can't explain how big my love is for you...you are the reason of my joy and sorrow. My every thought is you...when I wake up, and when I go to sleep. My admiration is so big for you. Michael, I will love you forever ♡♡♡♡♡

No recording artist before MJ did this type of choreography. People can say what they want about other "greats" but MJ not only inspired people who wanted to sing but he also inspired dancers, songwriters and people who wanted to make videos. Hands down he's inspired more people in entertainment than anybody else.

Pedophile? Ohhhhh you mean the criminal investigation that was closed because of the lack of evidence, it stays as an accusation and if you truly believe he is a pedophile after it was stated as an accusation nothing more...then i'm calling you a rapist right now.....and you are one because i said so even though i have no evidence at all(i hope)

Reply ·

July Yes 1 month ago

there was no lack of evidence however the starstruck jury professed that it was not quite beyond a reasonable doubt. Everyone knew already back then he was guilty though and since then several more victims have come forward sickest pedo ever Michael Jackson

Reply ·

+July Yes I respect that you stay by what you believe, but who is this "everyone" exactly? Trying to prove the fact that he is guilty is useless at this point and time, when the case was settled several years ago. Having an opinion is one thing. Calling out a dead man for doing something that was proven false by the court of law is another.

Michael will forever be awesome. He was an artistic soul and nothing within him would ever hurt anyone. He remains at the top of the music chart from to singing dancing out of all these other new age artist. They are nothing compared to him. And for those who have blackened his name for whatever reason will also reap what they have sown. I love this man's music, talent, shyness and his courageous attitude. He has inspired many. I personal know how it is to live a sheltered life and feel that you don't fit in with the crowd. It feels as if you are ten or more years younger than everyone else around you. Girls and guys are kissing and spooning near you at a party you don't even know how you got invited and several people are trying to get with you because they find something about you appealing and all you want to do is escape.

Ok, I don't hate Michael or anything, but her steps are always the same, yes, he move great, but i think he doesn't do anything else than the same thing. And see the final part so fake, he use the people emotions and no one noticed that, that "sexy" moves, what i think is just disgusting, because he can't even pee alone. I see all of Michael so fake, but it's just my opinion. Anyway, he is just an artist, i can't expect anything from him +Jeremy Bastos What are you talking about? What was fake with the final part? Lol. Michael is the ultimate word for an artist an iconic figure with his own style so ofcourse his dance moves will almost look the same, everyone who dances has their own style. The thing with Michael isn't about how he moves It's the energy behind his moves and his dance that is amazing. He is his best at it. It's not about dancing diffrent all the time my friend, It's how you become one with the music. Many deaf people love to match Michael dance because you can SEE the music. Please "sexy moves that you think are disgusting" this is what dance is about - you express yourself. Look around in the music industry nowadays and I promise you you will be more disgusted... It is not disgusting watching Michael he is pure art.

It makes me so sad that he Left us so soon. I was too young to understand when it happened, but now I realize I'll NEVER see this man live. It breaks my heart, he's my hero. I'm happy that he can finally rest. R.I.P The King Billboard just named this performance the greatest in VMA's history! - There never will be anyone greater than MJ .

AND the 'Dangerous choreo' does not get the credit it deserves ! it seems that with Michaels massive discography and countless famous choreographic pieces, dangerous often gets over looked because it doesn't have a short film.

But its so bad ass and effective, truly one of the best dance pieces ever !

Dear God,

Thank you for creating Michael Jackson. It seems to me like all of the really great people are taken too soon, I guess this is part of your plan. But I have to say if I get to heaven and I find out you took him just so you could have him all to yourself... we're going to have words. He was grace and magic and joy wrapped in a beautiful bow. I can't wait to finally see him in concert. When that day comes.

He spread the message of peace, love and hope and suffered greatly. He was a modern day saint.
And like all saints, he was stoned and crucified and now he lives forever in our hearts and will never die.
