TROLL THREAD PRESS does not print nor draw profit from the printing of the manuscripts it distributes. Although TROLL THREAD PRESS does not discourage the use/misuse of these images, it can not be held responsible for misuse/misuse by this document's printer.

Photographic or other likenesses of US and foreign currencies are permissible for any non-fraudulent purpose, provided the items are reproduced in black and white and are less than 3/4 or greater than 1 1/2 times the size, in linear dimensions, of any part of the original items being reproduced. Negatives and plates used in making the likeness must be destroyed after their use for the purpose for which they were made. This policy permits the use of currency reproductions in commercial advertisements, provided they conform to the size and color restrictions.

The Counterfeit Detection Act of 1992, Public Law 102-550, in Section 411 of Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations, permits color illustrations of U.S. currency provided: (1) the illustration is of a size less than three-fourths or more than one and one-half, in linear dimension, of each part of the item illustrated; (2) the illustration is one-sided; and (3) all negatives, plates, positives, digitized storage medium, graphic files, magnetic medium, optical storage devices, and any other thing used in the making of the illustration that contain an image of the illustration or any part thereof are destroyed and/or deleted or erased after their final use.

TROLL THREAD PRESS does not make money, has no money for a lawyer or a binding lawsuit, and thus interprets its compliance with the law to be legally just . For more information regarding the legal identity of MONEY's maker as it technically belongs to the poetic contingencies of its printer, contact:
